Mandatory disclosure form in terms of section 67 of the Property Practitioners Act of 2019 ("the Act")

We are by law required to provide each prospective applicant with an exact copy of the Mandatory Disclosure form that appeared in the government Gazette as part of the regulations to the Property Practitioners Act.

The disclosure form completed by the Landlord appears below. Please note that the prescribed form only refers to sale and purchase transactions. As you are considering entering a lease of the property, any reference to a transaction of sale should be ignored and should be substituted with "rent"/"lease" (instead of sale) or "tenant" instead of purchaser as there is no anticipated sale. For your convenience, these references have been clarified by adding brackets to draw the distinction to your attention.

Please note that this document does not replace or supersede the mandatory inspection to be conducted after the signing of the lease, but before the move in date and /or the exit inspection, both of which have been provided for in terms of the Rental Housing Act, 1999. The mandatory inspection will note specific issues peculiar or particular to the specific unit you may rent in specific detail. The mandatory disclosure form details facilities in general and known issues with regards to the unit in question, if any. You are welcome to request written clarification on any disclosure before deciding to enter into a lease.
